

Description of Permissive Change

The report is prepared for a FCC Class II permissive change. The differences compared with the original report is declaring the antenna gain from the average value 1.4 dBi to peak value of 4 dBi. The antenna type is still the same Monopole PCB trace antenna. The 1DX module is tested in the host Spire in the application

Please refer to the test reports for more details about the test items